

The J. Paul Getty Trust
cordially invites our neighbors to enjoy a wine and cheese reception and viewing
of our newest exhibition

Spectacular RUBENS

THE TRIUMPH OF THE EUCHARIST

In the early 1620s, Peter Paul Rubens was commissioned to design a series of monumental tapestries to celebrate the Roman Catholic Church's spiritual triumphs. This exhibition unites several of Rubens's exhilarating oil sketches with the resulting glorious tapestries, exceptional loans from both the Museo del Prado and the Patrimonio Nacional in Madrid.

Sunday, November 16, 2014
3:00–5:00 p.m.

The Getty Center
1200 Getty Center Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90049

RSVP by November 6 by calling (310) 440-6024 or email CommunityRelations@getty.edu
Complimentary parking.

The Victory of the Eucharist over Idolatry (detail), about 1625. Peter Paul Rubens (Flemish, 1577–1640). Oil on panel. Image courtesy of the Photographic Archive, Museo Nacional del Prado, Madrid. Text and design © 2014 J. Paul Getty Trust

